EMERGENCY

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED!!

On Thursday morning @ 1:30 AM, the home of Linda Jennings (Epona) and Darlene Dryja (Vestia) burnt down. Everyone got out alright. Two of their 13 cats didn't make it. Right now they are living in a hotel courtesy of the Red Cross, but only for the next week. They still have their store and stock and can be contacted there after 12 noon daily.
609-567-9104

But they could use our help. Most everything in the house was destroyed. They salvaged a deep freezer with a load of meat. They need either somewhere to store the meat or some way to get the freezer to their store.

Mostly they need money to buy food and to just live until everything with the insurance company is processed. As it is, the insurance company is trying to stiff them on a technicality. If anyone has any experience dealing with insurance companies or is aware of the legalities involved, please call them at their shop.

Any donations can be sent the house (yes, the mail still goes there)
38 Railroad Avenue
Hammonton, NJ 08037

Or stop by their store. Help them out by buying their products.

Linda says she needs some strong backs & donations of building materials to gut out & rebuild the house. Give them a call, say Hi, let them know people are thinking about them.

JUNK-A-THON REVIEW

Under the blazing ball of flame, we braved the heat the humidity & biting flies, all in the name of REVELWOOD. The RAG did a fair amount of business which resulted in $57.00! Thank you to all who donated and participated and those who didn't, well, we will see you next year.

Remember, BEFORE you throw that old piece of junk out, CAN WE SELL IT?! If it will sell keep it for the next Junk-a-Thon. Next year we will make $157.00 if everyone contributes their old junk (and some of their time), We need your support, so we can continue to make repairs and additions to the barn!

Buying new furniture? Donate the old. Call Tarani, Silva or Jen to find out where to bring it. We can store furniture in Jen's basement, so please donate, donate, donate.

Thanks
R.A.G. Mistresses

NAME THE MISTRESS

Jen Stevens, our new Mistress, has no Revelwood name. Most of us have an alias either by choice or by popular consent. As Jen is now a public figure within our colony, we feel it is only appropriate that she have a Revelname. Hopefully, as time passes, her true name will reveal itself. We'll let you know if something develops.

BREWER'S GUILD

Three type of brew (pale ale, Irish red, and Dark & Lovely) are being prepared for the Pipe-n-Pint. However, assistance is still needed in our goal of an extended bar area with taps.

FOOD & COAT COLLECTION

Old coats & sweaters (in good condition & clean) as well as non-perishable foods will be collected at the P-n-P, to be distributed to needy families for the holidays in the name of the Revelwood Artisans Colony. If you want to help but can't make the P-n-P, contact any guild mistress to arrange a drop-off.

LIGHT FOR THE P-N-P

Don't forget to save your scrap wax, drippings, and candle stubs. We are collecting it to form candles to illuminate the Pipe and Pint. As this should be a very memorable event, with the crowing of the new tripod, we all want to have a good view of the events taking place. Contact Goody or a Guild mistress for drop off.
