ART SHOW SILENT AUCTION

Thanks to Goodie (the dolls) and D (the book) we were able to raise $20 for the guild. I hope next year we can have more Art to auction. Mike d'Mage has donated his 2nd place photos "Ambient" to the auction. Anyone interested in purchasing his art or donating an art project to our auction, contact a Guild Mistress.

PINS..PINS..PINS..

Pins will be under construction starting Oct. 13th. And, YES, we would appreciate some help. Last year about 10-12 people helped out all together and we were done in good time. Work will be done in Q & Tarani's basement.

PENNSIC XXX

There were many vast improvements to camp this year.

The shower was a steaming success. The hot water heater not only kept the shower piping hot, but also provided hot running water at our kitchen sink.

The kitchen set up was wonderful with a stove and sink, pantry and dish rack, cooler and picnic table. Morning coffee was available to anyone who could scrape themselves out of their tents. Those who braved the weather the first week also had planned meals to look forward to every day.

The bridge was better than we could have hoped for. Calidor and his helpers spent the first week selecting a sight for the crossing, then constructing and finally testing his creation. Seven hefty Lords braved the structure together to prove it would withstand anything.

Kerry Island now has permanent access and a tag line (thanks also to Calidor): "No Bitching on Island". We all agreed this was a definite improvement. All complaints were taken to the communal area to be discussed.

CD sales were rampant. Stingy distribution was the only reason they lasted all week. Many people asked, "What's the difference from last year?" "Well, there's 3 new songs" "Oh..." H.I.S. raised $600 for the Guild this year. We hope this will help the individual guilds to get a good start (and to refurbish parts of the barn).

Overall this Pennsic was interesting. At least, there was never a dull moment. Now it's time to think about next year's camp improvements and get pre-registered.

INDIVIDUAL GUILDS

There will be an official recognition of the individual guilds, their members and leaders at the P-N-P this year.

Three rules have been established for the official existence of an individual guild:

- At least three members
- There will be a leader (cannot be a throne holder)
- Must produce something to the benefit of Revelwood. (i.e.: Literary Guild- Junk Mail; Brewers Guild- beer,mead,wine; etc.)

Simple, right? Well here's our line up so far.

Literary Guild: General, Tom, Meer, Tarani, Q, Cassie, Brother Rodney

Brewers Guild: Van, Q, Vicar, Goodie, Mary Rua, Eris, Justine, Xu.

Musicians Guild: Rob-O, Max, Q, Vicar, Mike d'Mage, General, IB, Connor, Stonewall, Laura, Tarani.

Seamstress Guild: Silva, Greer, Tarani, Mims.

Digital Guild: Brother Rodney, Mike d'Mage, General

Photography Guild: Edi, Van, Liz, Tarani, Derek.

If anyone is interested in joining one of these guilds, contact a guild mistress before the P-N-P so you can be recognized.

Guild grants will be available to established, recognized guilds.

PIPE 'N' PINT SAT. NOV. 10,2001

There is some new construction underway at the barn to improve the PnP. A shed has been donated and constructed behind the bathrooms to be renovated into the new bathhouse(should be ready for the party). More work is planned for Oct 20-21. Help is needed so call if you can make it.

The food table will be a bit more organized this year. The stage will be enclosed and the food kept there. It would be very helpful if those who are planning to bring a dish to contact Tarani so she can keep track and avoid the 5-bowl-salsa incident. (Food a/o drink for thee and three).

SET-UP / CLEAN-UP: Fri. Nov. 9th is the final set-up(hopefully we'll be mostly done, but you never know). Sun. Nov. 11th is clean-up. Usually whom ever stays over begins the clean-up, but anyone is welcome to return and help set the barn back to its original splendor (usually around noon).

CAMPING: If you are planning to camp over, it is highly recommended to come asap on fri afternoon to assure a good spot. Since last year more land has been cleared to accommodate more campers, but every year we seem to have more and more tents.

NIGHTWATCH: As per tradition, we need volunteers to help keep the peace and patrol the gate. Silva has started making talberds for those who are on watch and hopefully we'll have the headsets working again.

GUESTS: Any pinned citizen is allowed up to 2 guests for whom they will claim responsibility. Non-pins may only bring a guest if that guest is sponsored by a pin holder.

This is our biggest event of the year. We need to keep it orderly if we wish to have the PNP at the barn again.

A Message From Mistress Meer

Greetings everyone. First let me start by saying thanks to all of Revelwood for their support during the Guild elections. I will do my best to live up to the honor you have given me by allowing me to be a Guild Mistress.

I have a lot of thoughts for the Art Guild that I would like to work on with my fellow Mistresses', so hopefully you will see some soon.

Since this is still pretty recent since the elections I don't have much to say at this time other than thanks once again. Also if anyone has any idea's, suggestions, concerns or complaints please feel free to email me at Meeragor@hotmail.com.

OUR CONDOLENCES

To any and all who have been affected either directly or indirectly by the tragedy of Sept. 11.

The Hooligans donated the proceeds of that weekend's CD sales to the rescue effort.

Stone Soup preformed at the Lakewood Renaissance Festival to raise money also for the rescue effort.

Thank you to all who have donated and helped in our efforts to support those who are working hard to save lives.

50/50 RAFFLE

To benifit the Guild will be held @ the P n' P this year. You have been warned so don't use the excuse that you didn't know. So fill your pouches to help your Guild.

PUBLIC ART SALE

We need your art!! We are trying to organize a public art sale to benifit the New York Relief Fund. We have 4 pieces promised us already, but we would like to have at least 10 pieces before we present our idea to the Historic Medford Business Assoc. Stone Soup will preform for donations and if anyone has any other ideas for fund raising please contact Tarani ASAP. We're hoping to have this occur sometime in November.

Our thanks to Liz Bradford and the Rescue Rangers for donations (the other 2 are from Q and Tarani) go out to Mike d' Mage and Goodie on their upcoming nuptials. They plan to exchange vows sometime in the beginning of February. Good luck and happy planning!

GREEN PAGES UPDATE

There have been several address changes in the last year, so despite our decision to not reprint the Green Pages this year, we are going to. The only catch is that we are printing up a limited number of them (since we still have SEVERAL of last years).

CHARITY DONATIONS

Thanks goes out to ARDEN and PATTY for their outpouring of generosity to the residents of the Red Lion Animal Refuge.

If anyone can make a contact with a local vet or pet store, ask them what they do with their expired pet food. Many local shelters can use the supplies, they just don't have any way to get it.

GUILD ELECTIONS

As you all know, Silva had chose not to run again this year for the illustrious post of Guild Mistress. This left Mims, Tarani, Alexandra, Meer and 'other' to fight it out for the three positions. The populous re-elected Mims and Tarani and elected Meer. It was a tight race between Meer and Alexandra, with Moose and Squirrel pulling in at 5th place.

Silva mentioned she is just on sabbatical and may return to the ballot next year.
